Paki is a derogatory ethnic slur originating from the United Kingdom, typically directed towards people of Pakistani descent, though it has also been used against those of other South Asian descent (such as Indians and Bengalis).

Etymology [edit]
'Paki' is derived from the exonym Pakistan. The term 'Pak' (پاک) means 'purity' in Persian, Urdu and Pashto. There was no 'Pak' or 'Paki' ethnic group before the state was created.[3][4] The name of Pakistan (initially as 'Pakstan') was coined by the Cambridge University law student and Muslim nationalist Rahmat Ali, and was published on 28 January 1933 in the pamphlet 'Now or Never, which was the name adopted for the country after the partition of India and independence from the British Raj.[5][6]
