The enjoyment that some people get from fear is lik ely not from fear itself. Instead, thrills stem from the physical and emotiona l release that follows scary situations, according to Seeker, a division of Di scovery. For some horror fans, the desire to feel fear is a manifest ation of an adrenaline-seeking personality.

So why do we like it? It is a combination of an adrenaline rush and an opportunity to learn about dealing with scary situations in a safe environment, researchers say. Clasen an d his colleagues identified three broad types of horror fans: adrenaline junki es, white knucklers and dark copers.
