Operation 40 was the code name for a Central Intelligence Agency-sponsored counterintelligence group composed of Cuban exiles.[1] The group 💸 was formed to seize control of the Cuban government after the Bay of Pigs Invasion.[2] Operation 40 continued to operate 💸 unofficially until disbanded in 1970 due to allegations that an aircraft that was carrying cocaine and heroin in support of 💸 the group crashed in California.[1]

It was approved by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in March 1960, after the January 1959 Cuban 💸 Revolution, and was presided over by Vice President Richard Nixon.[citation needed]

Origins [edit]

On 11 December 1959, following the Cuban 💸 Revolution of January 1959, Colonel J.C. King, chief of the CIA's Western Hemisphere Division, sent a confidential memorandum to CIA 💸 director Allen W. Dulles. King
